IRISH VISA CHECKLIST - VISIT TOURIST (NON-SPONSORED VISIT/TOURS)

LINK: https://www.irishimmigration.ie/coming-to-visit-ireland/how-to-apply-for-a-short-stay-c-visit-tourist-visa/

FOR ALL SHORT STAY 'C' VISAS:

All applicants for a short stay 'C' visa must show that they have strong family, social or economic ties to their country of residence to assure the visa officer that the projected stay in Ireland will be temporary, and in accordance with the duration and conditions of the permission granted by the immigration authorities on arrival in Ireland. The maximum stay allowed under a short stay 'C' visa is 90 days.

Your application may take longer if you have not submitted all necessary supporting documentation. The burden of proof in all cases is on you to satisfy the visa officer. The visa officer considers each application on its merits and may request additional documentation. There is no right to a visa nor is there one set of documents or circumstances of application that will guarantee an approval.

UK SHORT STAY WAIVER PROGRAM: https://www.irishimmigration.ie/coming-to-visit-ireland/short-stay-visa-waiver-programme/

UK short stay visit visas are permitted except those issued for: Visitors in transit, Visitors seeking to marry or to enter a civil partnership. Long term visitors to the UK are not allowed. You must have a valid multiple UK short-stay ("C") visa in order to travel to Ireland from the UK under this programme.

In order to avail of the programme you must have landed and gained lawful entry to the UK on foot of your current UK visa, prior to undertaking the journey to Ireland. Each distinct period of leave to remain in the UK (up to a maximum of 180 days each time) requires a prior legal entry into the UK before travel to Ireland under the programme, no matter what the duration of the UK visa.This programme is not reciprocal. It does not permit a person who is a visa required national under UK immigration rules to enter the UK on foot of an Irish visa.

If you have already been to the UK and then travelled home, but still have time remaining on your UK permission, you can travel directly to Ireland provided the visit is within remaining time on your UK permission. Your journey to Ireland must take place within the dates of your permission to be in the UK. The maximum amount of time you can come to Ireland for under the programme is for 90 days, or the remaining time left on your UK permission, whichever is the least amount of time.

- Applicants are advised not to purchase travel tickets until a decision has been issued. Temporary bookings may be made online in lieu, as needed.
- Processing time is a MINIMUM PERIOD OF 6 - 8 WEEKS.
- Only documents in English will be considered - those not in English should include an official translation into English.
- Visa fees are non-refundable.
- Documents must be original (except where stated). In cases where applicable documents are unavailable, you may submit a letter of explanation in lieu of the lacking document. Screenshots/pictures of documents will not be accepted.
